GOING COMMANDO

After the three previous encounters that make the Lashkar series, Mukul Deva brings us another 'operatives-and-jihadis' thriller in Tanzeem. The Indian strike force, Force 22, is the machine that has struck terror against terror that lies across the border in Pakistan. This time, Iqbal, one of Force 22's finest, seeks revenge for the death of his wife and unborn child by crossing over again to find the mysterious Ameer-ul-Momineem, a powerful warlord in Waziristan who is embarking on a deadly mission. If you can handle the corny, uber-patriotic bits, Deva's book is a cracker.
