

Scene and Heard

What's happening in Mumbai's hotels? A peek into the party circuit and events in the city...

Movie memories

The ballroom of JW Marriott was the chosen venue for a starry book launch. The night saw a meaningful discussion laced with humour between Union Minister of Women and Child Development Renuka Choudhary and filmstar Kirron Kher. It was 'Women in Indian Cinema,' a coffee-table book from DT Cinemas, part of the DLF Group, written by Bhagwanti Singh and Mukul Deva with a foreword by Sharmila Tagore. Kirron Kher spoke of the time when the women in the movies were earthy. Renuka Choudhary dwelled on women empowerment and sounded a friendly warning to the men in the house. Enjoying the evening were Tanishaa, Gul Panag, Mona Singh, Konkana Bakshi, designers Neeta Lulla, Anna Singh and Narendra Kumar Ahmed, luxury store owner Pradeep Hirani and banker Rob Hennin. Kajal Aijaz, director and CEO, DT Cinemas, was happy with the turnout and felt that it was truly a pleasure for them to pay tribute to the divas and recollect some of the sweet memories of Indian cinema. Co-sponsors of the night